CUBAN CONGRESS CONVENES.

WILL HAVE NO LEGISLATIVE POWER UNTIL MAY 20.

Only to Pass Upon Credentials Now and Report to Military Governor-Some objection to Form of Gen. Wood's Speech-Answer Expressed Gratitude.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. HAVANA, May 5 .- Upon the invitation of Governor General Wood, the members of the new Congress assembled at the palace to-day, this being the date upon which they were called to assemble for the first time for the examination of credentials. Gen. Wood made the following speech:

I have the honor, in the name of the President of the United States and as Military Governor of Cuba, to welcome you and to most earnestly wish you every success in the great work upon which you are soon to enter. You have been convened solely for the purpose expressed in paragraph 2 of Order 101, dated Havana, April 14, 1902, and no legislative power will be vested in the Congress until after the formal transfer of the Government to the Government-elect, which transfer will take place at noon, May 20.

You are requested to notify me officially at the earliest possible date who have been elected President and Vice-President of Cuba and who have been elected Senators and Representatives, in order that I may transmit this information to the President of the United States. It is important that this action be taken without delay in order that the President may be officially informed as to the personnel of the Government-elect, he wishing to inform the nations of the world when a Government is established in Cuba. Upon the completion of this duty, the Congress will adjourn to meet at noon, May 20, 1902."

Señor Capote replied in the name of himself and his companions. He asked Gen. Wood as the Military Governor to inform President Roosevelt and the people of the United States of the Cubans' gratitude for the fulfilment of their desires and aspirations to be an independent people. "It is our greatest desire," he added, "to fulfill the mission which the Cuban Constitution entrusts us with." The Senate and House then adjourned the former to the palace of the Segundo Cabo, over which the Cuban flag was flying. and the former to the old naval palace In the Senate Seffor Cisneros was appointed Acting President and Senor Silvera, Secre tary, they being respectively, the oldes and youngest members. The rules of the Constitutional Convention were adopted. Senor Mora proposed to send a telegram to President-elect Palma in the name of the Senate of Cuba. This was rejected on the ground that the Senate was not yet constituted. A committee on credentials was appointed, and will report on Wednesday The Senate then adjourned.

The House had a longer session. Some lebate ensued regarding Gen. Wood's adiress, which had been sent to the Congress after its delivery in the form of a communication. One representative objected to the form of the communication, which he described as an attempt to dictate to the Cuban Congress as to the time in which credentials should be examined, which showed bad faith.

Senor Villuendas urged in reply that the House get down to business

The rooms in which the Houses met are ong and narrow and are not well adapted excited little public interest. There were no crowds in the streets, but both chambers were well filled with listeners to the pro-

BERESFORD STANDS BY IT. Ready to Accept Punishment for His Critieism of the Admiralty.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. LONDON, May 5.- In the House of Commons this afternoon Mr. Arnold-Forster, Parliamentary Secretary to the Admiralty said he had nothing to add in regard to the letter published by Rear-Admiral Lord Charles Beresford, now Conservative member for Woolwich, attacking the Admiralty or certain deficiencies.

Lord Charles Beresford thereupon arose and said that as the matter affected his own character he thought it was due to the service he represented that he should state the facts. He admitted that he wrote a letter which he should not have done under the Admiralty regulations. He was responsible to the authorities, but they had never asked him for an explanation. If they had done so he would have told the truth and respectfully submitted to any reprimand or punishment. He alone was responsible for the letter. There was nothing in it that was not a matter of public notoriety. The matter was now in the hands of the constituted authorities, and he was prepared to receive with respectful submission any punishment they might choose to award.

COLOMBIAN REBELS ACTIVE. Evidently Preparing for an Attack on ectal Cable Despatch to THE SUN Colon, Colombia, via Kingston, Jamaica, May 5.- News received here from the centre of the republic shows that affairs are very unsettled. The garrisons at Carthagena and Barranquilla are inadequate. Several Government steamers are at Magdalena waiting detachments of soldiers which they are to bring to the coast.

The Government loss in the battle of Punte Pena last Sunday was over 300 men. As a result of this fight the insurgents have intrenched themselves in a favorable position which they have retained. Fifteen hundred insurgents have landed this week at Chorrera and an attack is expected on Colon and Panama in a few days. The garrison at Colon has been increased to 1,000 men of all arms.

An arrangement has been made between the American cruiser Philadelphia and the gunboat Machias to land marines at an opportune moment. Much anxiety is felt as to the situation

DENIES BRITISH VICTORY. German Chancellor Introduces New Bill

and Explains Sugar Situation. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN BERLIN, May 5 .- The Reichstag to-day began its consideration of a bill providing for changes in the sugar régime in accordance with the Brussels convention. Chancellor von Bülow, in introducing the bill, especially combatted the idea that the proceedings at Brussels had concluded in a triumph for Great Britain. Germany, he said, had entered the conference, not through deference to foreign countries and least of all to Great Britain, but owing to the risk of losing the English market without gaining others. He asked the House to agree to the bill in the interests of the sugar industry.

OUR COAL IN SWITZERLAND. Americans Seize the Market That Germany and England Had.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. LONDON, May 6 .- A despatch to the Chronicle from Geneva, Switzerland, says that the first consignment of American coal will arrive there about the middle of May. In the past Switzerland has obtained her coal from Germany. In 1901 the German collieries formed a trust and raised prices two shillings a ton. A Liverpool colliery forwarded coal, which was sold a shilling cheaper than the German product, causing large orders to be placed in England.

These orders were badly executed, and he Americans seized the opportunity. They erected sheds at Rouen and Havre, France, for stocking purposes, and now practically monopolize the Swiss market.

NONE HELD FOR MODEL'S DEATH Conhaim, Asher and Br. McCleery Discharged by Coroner.

A Coroner's jury decided yesterday that Hattie Laroque, the cloak model who died in the New York Hospital on April 25, came to her death by blood poisoning following a criminal operation induced by some person or persons unknown.

The Coroner then discharged Dr. Mary McCleery, Abraham Conhaim and Leo Asher, who had been arrested and admitted to bail pending the inquest.

The Coroner's court was crowded with ersons anxious to hear the testimony in the case. Among the first to arrive was Leon Laroque, the father of the dead girl He was accompanied by his two sons Leon and John. They took seats far back in the courtroom.

Coroner Scholer said in effect: He had seen the Laroque girl at the hospital on April 22, 23 and 24. She told him that she had been wronged by Abe Conhaim and Leo Asher and Dr. McCleery had treated her. She said she did not know whether instruments were used. She said that she was not married, but Asher had promised to marry her and that Asher had sent her to Dr. McCleery.

The Coroner said he did not succeed in getting her ante-mortem statment. Coroner's Physician Weston testified that the woman's death, in his opinion, was due to a criminal operation, but the girl might have caused the injuries herself. girl might have caused the injuries herself.

Miss Carrie Blount testified that Mr.
Asher had a hall room next to her in a house in Eleventh street, and she often saw Miss Laroque go into his room during the daytime. She never saw Mr. Asher give Miss Laroque money.

Bernard Meyers, a messenger boy, testified that he had carried a note from Asher to Miss Laroque when the latter was in Dr. McCleery's house. Meyers said he was told at the house that she was not known there, and he carried the note back to Asher.

Dr. McCleery took the stand voluntarily and told about the girl coming to her house and going from there to the hospital.

Lawyer Weeks, for Conhaim and Asher, made a motion that the jury be instructed not to consider the statements of Miss hot to consider the statements of Miss.

Laroque, as they were not legal evidence.

Mark Alter, for Dr. McCleery, made a similar motion, saying that the young wotnan had in no way implicated his client.

The Coroner granted both motions.

He then charged the jury, saying that they could safely find the girl died from the results of a criminal corection. "Assistant District Attorney Studen," he said, "has asked me to tell you that the evidence against Dr. McCleery, Conhaim and Asher is very weak."

The jury was out but a short time

LOST $9,000 IN POOL ROOMS; SUED

Verdict for $125 - Downey, Poolroom Man, Says He Lost Hundreds of Thousands Arthur W. Jackson obtained yesterday from a jury before Justice Greenbaum of the Supreme Court a verdict against Patrick H. Downey for $125 as money lost n pools on horses

Jackson said he lost about $9,000 in two poolrooms alleged to have been run by the defendant, from December, 1898, to May, 1899. The poolrooms, he said, were at 28 and 88 East Thirteenth street. Plaintiff said that about $4,000 of his losses were outlawed and he sued for $5,000.

Downey said he could not recall the plaintiff until the suit was brought, and then he remembered that he had seen him about one of the poolrooms. Downey said he had given up the poolroom business in this city, in which he ket several hundred thousand dollars. Checks for bets amounting to $55 were put in evidence. Downe admitted that Jackson had bet sums of $2 or $3 to the amount of about $40.

Twas glad to see that my old friend, Col. Frank D. Baldwin, was at the head of the Twenty-seventh United States Infantry that gave such a crushing defeat to the Moros in the Philippines. He's the man to do it. There's not a man that I know that is better fitted for such a job. I almost wish I was with him. He's a crack shot himself and he knows how to make crack

THE REV. DR. PANTON RESIGNS. Directors of Princeton Seminary Make Him Professor Emeritus.

PRINCETON, N. J., May 5.-At a meeting of the Directors of Princeton Theological Seminary to-day the Rev. Dr. William Paxton, who has been a professor in the seminary for twenty years, and who, as senior member of the faculty, has served for several years as head of the institution, presented his resignation. It is reluctantly accepted by the directors. Dr Paxton is more than 70 years old, and his request to be released from active service was made on account of advanced age. He had presented his resignation twice before but the board refused both times to accept it. He was made professor emeritus. His accessor in the chair of ecclesiastical, homiletical and pastoral theology will not
